GONE THIS WEEK - WILL DO ANOTHER YEAR

Man can choose between right and wrong in every aspect of his life. This word is not to "look at", but it is the word "to see". Stop looking at yourself and looking at the world and SEE what is the purpose and meaning of your life. This is a building block of the universe. Today's Torah portion begins with the words,

- 26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:
27 the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today;
28 and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, by following other gods which you have not known.¹

God chose to let men choose between right and wrong. Chose Aaron. He chose David. And, He chose a place where "Hashem will choose to rest His name." This is in the world capital of making choices. It is made in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah.

Whether we choose to believe He is working in our lives or not, He is
